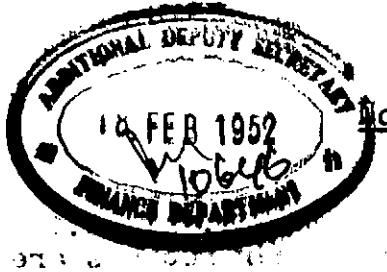
Pension - Compassionate - Forfeiture - IC Memo - Late Process Server - Attempt - Non-Gazetted - Grant to widow - Sanctioned.



No.A.16 of 1952.

District Court of South Kanara.
Mangalore 3, Post Box.152.
Dated 14th February, 1952.

From
Sri P. T. Raman Nayar, I.C.S.,
District Judge of South Kanara.

To
The Secretary to the Government of Madras, Finance (Pension) Department,

Sir,

Sub: PENSION -Compassionate gratuity - Late K.Nemu - Process peon, District Court, Mangalore -Grant to widow - Report -Submission of.

Ref: G.O.No.120 Finance (Pension) department dated 22-3-1932.

The late K.Nemu was first entertained in Government service on 3-7-1918 as III class process server in the District Court, Mangalore on a pay of Rs.13-8-0 per mensem and was confirmed on 1-10-1921 in that post. His pay was raised to Rs.14 on 4-1-1923 as II class Process server. He had put in a total service of 33 years and 6 days of which a period of 29 years 8 months and 9 days was permanent service. In 1944 and 1945 he acted as I Class process server on Rs.15/- for short periods on 3 occasions and was confirmed as I class process server on Rs.15 on 1-11-1945. In the course of his service he was on leave for a total period of only 4 months and 18 days. He died on 9-7-1951 in his 55th year while on leave. He was once suspended for 18 days in 1931 and the record of his service was otherwise satisfactory. Under the scheme of revision of pay of inferior servants his pay was fixed at Rs.20-8-0 with effect from 1-1-1947 and it was again refixed at Rs.23-8-0 with effect from 1-7-1949.

2. Seshamma, the widow of the deceased process server submitted an application on 19-11-1951 in which she stated that her husband died on 9-7-1951 after a brief illness for about 3 months, that he had left behind 7 children of whom 5 were minors depending entirely on her and that he did not save anything during his life time and hence she prayed that she might be granted compassionate gratuity. This application was sent to the Revenue Authorities for necessary enquiry and their report discloses that the petitioner and her children were solely depending on the deceased, that he did not leave behind any movable or immovable property, that he did not insure his life, and that the petitioner and her children are in a helpless condition. The eldest son of the petitioner, Vamana aged 30 years, is stated to be living in Shimoga as a carpenter and the 2nd son Janardhana aged 25 as a tailor in Bombay. The former is not helping the mother and the latter is remitting Rs.10 per month. The 3rd son Sunder aged is a beedi tier earning about Rs.30 a month. The rest of the children are minors. It is stated that there are no other relatives who are in a position or under an obligation to support the family. The parties are governed by the Aliyasanthana law.

3. In submitting the case for orders of the Government, I request that the compassionate gratuity that may be sanctioned may be made payable to the petitioner Seshamma, the widow of the deceased, whose descriptive roll in duplicate is enclosed herewith and it may be made payable at the District Treasury, Mangalore. At the time of his death the deceased was drawing a pay of Rs.24 and D.A. of Rs.19 per mensem. The service register and the other records are also enclosed.

Yours faithfully,

District Judge.

The petitioner Lawrence [illegible] widow of K. Neema late police servant of this town has five children who are solely depending on the deceased as he has not left behind any movable or immovable property. Enquiry reveals that he had met an insured to life. His sudden demise has left her and five minor children in a helpless condition. It is learnt that the eldest son No 2 in the G.T is away in Shimoga as a carpenter and as he is employed he is not in a position to send anything to his mother. No 3 in the G.T is employed as a Jailor in Bombay and that he is earning Rs 40/- per month. No 4 is a boiler cleaner and is getting Rs 30/- per month earning about Rs 30/- per month. Nos 5 & 6 are minors. They are [illegible] said to be learning Fitting. No 7 is a boy reading in the V class. The petitioner finds it a problem to maintain her family with the [illegible] Rs 15/- sent from her son in Bombay and the [illegible] of No 4. There are no other relatives to help in a pecuniary way to support the family. The petitioner is really in pitiable condition and she desires any help from the Hands of Govt. in the form of a lump sum grant. If sanctioned she desires to draw the same from the DT Treasury. We all were depending on the deceased. I have not inherited any sort of movable or immovable property. Now I am residing in the chalgeni property. During the life time of the deceased, he was not looking after his family. None else was with him. Now it is very difficult for the maintenance of myself and my children. Son Vamana is at Shimoga working as a carpenter. As he is married it is not possible for him to send me anything. Janardhana is a tailor at Bombay. He is remitting Rs.10 monthly. Sunder goes for tying beedies. He earns about Rs.30 per mensem. Vishwanatha is studying fitting work. Padmanabha is studying fitting work at Shimoga. Keshava is at home only. Sharada is in the V class. There is none else to look after me and my children. My elder sister and younger sister are living separately. I have no brothers or uncles. Therefore, to enable me to educate my minor children and to maintain them and myself, gratuity may be sanctioned — Is my statement.
